PLEASE CAREFULLY READ THE SEPARATE HEALTH AND SAFETY PRECAUTIONS BOOKLET INCLUDED WITH THIS PRODUCT BEFORE USING YOUR NINTENDO® HARDWARE SYSTEM, GAME CARD OR ACCESSORY. THIS BOOKLET CONTAINS IMPORTANT HEALTH AND SAFETY INFORMATION.

IMPORTANT SAFETY INFORMATION: READ THE FOLLOWING WARNINGS BEFORE YOU OR YOUR CHILD PLAY VIDEO GAMES.

AWARNING - Seizures

- Some people (about 1 in 4000) may have seizures or blackouts triggered by light flashes or patterns, and this may occur while they are watching TV or playing video games, even if they have never had a seizure before.
- Anyone who has had a seizure, loss of awareness, or other symptom linked to an epileptic condition should consult a doctor before playing a video game.
- Parents should watch their children play video games. Stop playing and consult a doctor if you or your child has any of the following symptoms:

Convulsions
Altered vision

Eye or muscle twitching Involuntary movements Loss of awareness Disorientation

- To reduce the likelihood of a seizure when playing video games:
  - 1. Sit or stand as far from the screen as possible.
  - 2. Play video games on the smallest available television screen.
  - 3. Do not play if you are tired or need sleep.
  - 4. Play in a well-lit room.
  - 5. Take a 10 to 15 minute break every hour.

▲WARNING - Radio Frequency Interference

The Nintendo DS can emit radio waves that can affect the operation of nearby electronics, including cardiac pacemakers.

- Do not operate the Nintendo DS within 9 inches of a pacemaker while using the wireless feature.
   If you have a pacemaker or other implanted medical device, do not use the wireless feature of the Nintendo DS without first consulting your doctor or the manufacturer of your medical device.
- Observe and follow all regulations and rules regarding use of wireless devices in locations such as hospitals, airports, and on board aircraft. Operation in those locations may interfere with or cause malfunctions of equipment, with resulting injuries to persons or damage to property.

▲WARNING - Repetitive Motion Injuries and Eyestrain

Playing video games can make your muscles, joints, skin or eyes hurt. Follow these instructions to avoid problems such as tendinitis, carpal tunnel syndrome, skin irritation or eyestrain:

- · Avoid excessive play. Parents should monitor their children for appropriate play.
- Take a 10 to 15 minute break every hour, even if you don't think you need it.
- When using the stylus, you do not need to grip it tightly or press it hard against the screen. Doing so may cause fatigue or discomfort.
- If your hands, wrists, arms or eyes become tired or sore while playing, or if you feel symptoms such as tingling, numbness, burning or stiffness, stop and rest for several hours before playing again.
- If you continue to have any of the above symptoms or other discomfort during or after play, stop playing and see a doctor.

▲WARNING - Battery Leakage

The Nintendo DS contains a rechargeable lithium ion battery pack. Leakage of ingredients contained within the battery pack, or the combustion products of the ingredients, can cause personal injury as well as damage to your Nintendo DS.

If battery leakage occurs, avoid contact with skin. If contact occurs, immediately wash thoroughly with soap and water. If liquid leaking from a battery pack comes into contact with your eyes, immediately flush thoroughly with water and see a doctor.

To avoid battery leakage:

- Do not expose battery to excessive physical shock, vibration, or liquids.
- Do not disassemble, attempt to repair or deform the battery.
- . Do not dispose of battery pack in a fire.
- . Do not touch the terminals of the battery, or cause a short between the terminals with a metal object.
- · Do not peel or damage the battery label.

> STORY &

Something stinks in ancient Greece, and it's not just the Kraken sea beast. Great cities wage war. Mythological monsters terrorize the land. The gods of Olympus squabble while heroes of legend suffer identity crises and skip out on their lunch tabs.

Meanwhile, a boy washes up on the Island of Crete. He doesn't remember how he got there or even who he is. He soon meets companions with equally murky backgrounds. He learns he is immortal, and his new friends are too. It's almost as if this group is somehow linked by fate...

Who are they? Why do they live forever?

Immortality loves company, so the group sets off on a quest for answers. They begin their long trek toward Olympus, home of the gods. Seems as good a place to start as any...

He woke up on a beach, soaked and stripped of his memory. Forest nymphs say he's the legendary hero Heracles. Could it be one of their tricks? A man who's traveling for reasons unknown. Ladies swoon over his Greek-godlike looks and golden locks. He reminds his companions of this often.

> VENTURING FORTH >

Your party's quest to solve the mystery of their immortality will take them all the way to the legendary Mount Olympus...and perhaps even farther. Along the way, they'll find themselves beset by a mythological mishmash of fearsome monsters.

MOVING ON THE WORLD MAP

When traveling on the World Map 13, you'll see villages, towns, and temples, among other locations. Visit these places to stock up on equipment, strengthen your abilities, and more.

You cannot run while you're on the World Map.

Enemy Encounters

You're bound to run into trouble as you wander around Greece. And if you bump into a particularly tough enemy. the screen will flash red before the battle. Make sure you're always ready to fight for your life by equipping yourself properly on the Setup screen 23

COMBAT

Once you encounter an enemy, combat p 17 will ensue. Touch commands with the stylus to choose your party members' actions P 19-20. In addition to standard attacks, you can also utilize spells, skills (special techniques), and abilities (actions that automatically activate in battle) to win the fight.

Getting KO'd

If a character's HP (hit points) fall to 0 in battle, he or she will be knocked out (KO'd). Knocking out all your opponents is the key to success in battle, but likewise, if everyone in your party gets KO'd, you'll arrive at the dreaded Game Over screen. Party members who get KO'd in combat will be revived with a small amount of HP once the battle is over.

Game Over

If you find yourself at the Game Over screen, touch Yes to restart the game from the start of the previous battle. Your party members will return with a small amount of HP.

Battle Spoils

Winning battles awards you EXP (experience points) and money (drachmas). When a party member earns enough EXP, he or she will gain a level P23. Enemies will occasionally drop items as well, which can be collected and added to your inventory.

> THE WORLD MAP

As you travel around the World Map, you'll come across small villages, discover vast temples, and run into more than a few bloodthirsty beasts.

VIEWING THE WORLD MAP SCREEN

Use the stylus to touch the direction (or location) you wish to go. You can also use to move. Once you arrive at a destination, the game will switch to the Field screen.

VIEWING THE FIELD SCREEN

On the Field screen, you'll examine objects and strike up conversations with people you meet. Expect battles in monster-infested areas too. Reach an exit and you'll switch back to the World Map screen.

TOWNS AND VILLAGES

Approach a door and touch it with the stylus to open it or close it. If the door opens, you can enter the building.

Towns and villages are filled with a variety of shops that sell goods and perform services. To find out what a shop offers, poke the shopkeeper with the stylus. Here are some of the places you'll find...

Inn	Rest here to restore HP and MP P 18.
ltem shop	These shops sell healing herbs, camping kits, and other items vital to your adventure.
Weapon shop	These places deal in the lethal tools of battle. You might even find a Trainer hanging around. Touch one with the stylus to go to the Training Camp, where you're free to try out magic p 25, skills p 26, and more.
Armor shop	A shop that sells all types of protective gear.
Sorcerist	These shops primarily sell magic darts: projectiles that cast magic spells when launched.
Alchemist	The craftsmen at these shops can draw out the latent potential of a number of items.
Polisher	These shops can scour the rust from seemingly useless weapons and armor.
Blacksmith	Smithies can modify your weapons and armor to forge new gear.

PROMETHEUS STATUES

These statues are often found in Sorcerists' basements. Praying to a Prometheus Statue will help you learn new magic spells.

Spells you've learned will become usable once you reach the required level.

Altar

Touch this with your stylus to pray to the Prometheus Statue.

Nymph

Talk to the nymph and she'll teach you ways to strengthen the spells you've learned P 22

TEMPLES

Temples house statues of the various gods of Olympus. Pray to these statues to learn new skills.

Skills you've learned will become usable once you reach the required level.

ITEMS

Touch a treasure chest ( ) to get the goodies inside. Some items, such as herbs, can be picked up directly off the ground. Examples of the kinds of items you'll find include...

U	Herb	A plant that restores a small amount of HP to one party member.
	Wakeblossom	A flower that cures one party member of the Sleep ailment.
A.	Ginseng	A root that cures one party member of the Stun ailment.

> COMBAT o

Win battles by reducing the HP of all of your opponents to 0. If every member of your party gets KO'd, you'll lose the battle.

VIEWING THE COMMAND INPUT SCREEN

The order in which characters take turns to act in battle is determined by their AGI (agility), among other factors. For each character, touch an action from the Battle menu to choose it.

Character Status

selected character.

Green represents HP, while blue represents MP. Attacks from the enemy will occasionally afflict characters with status ailments. These handicaps usually fade away after a set number of turns, but they can also be cured using items or magic.

Status ailment icon

Status ailments will disappear when the battle ends.

The Character Info Panel

This panel shows the name and stats for the currently selected character.

НР	Current health/maximum health. Your HP decrease as you take damage.	STR	Strength, i.e. your physical attack power.
		INT	Intelligence, i.e. your magical attack power.
MP	Current magic points/maximum magic points.	DEF	Defensive, i.e. your defensive ability.
	Your MP decrease as you use magic and skills.	AGI	Agility, i.e. your swiftness

Ether

Ether is a type of energy that occurs naturally in the wild. There are five types of ether: Fire , Earth , Wind , Water , and Dark . Whenever Fire, Earth, Wind, or Water ether is consumed, Dark ether increases, and viceversa. The amount of ether in an area also increases with each turn during battle.

The amount of each type of ether that is added each turn depends on the characteristics of the area in which you're fighting.

The Status Screen

STRENGTHENING MAGIC & SKILLS

As you advance through the game, you'll learn new ways to boost the effects of magic and skills via Touch Screen minigames. Whenever you cast a spell or use a skill, you'll see a screen like the one on the right. Use the stylus to choose between Auto and Stylus.

If you wait too long, Auto will be selected automatically.

Spells and skills will have their normal level of effectiveness.

Stylus

Use the stylus and follow the instructions on the Touch Screen. As you succeed at the minigame, the gauge on the top screen will increase. Raise it enough and you'll boost the effectiveness of your spell or skill.

Different spells and skills are strengthened in different ways.

OVERKILL

If you defeat an enemy by dishing out an especially large amount of damage, it's possible to get an Overkill. This turns the devastated enemy into ether, restoring the MP of the character who performed the Overkill.

If you defeat an enemy without dealing enough damage to cause an Overkill, you can still get an Overkill by dealing additional damage to the victim before the next turn begins.

Abilities gained by equipping items

Choose this to view a list of available skills for each character.

Characters gain more abilities as they level up.

Use this to establish the basic fighting tactics characters will use when Auto is selected from the Battle menu.

Back Row vs. Front Row

Characters in the front row can use melee attacks, such as sword strikes, but they're also more vulnerable to enemy attacks. Placing characters in the back row makes it harder for them to get hit, but it also limits them to using longrange attacks. As such, the back row is best suited for archers and magic users.

The glossary contains explanations of the various terms that pop up over the course of your adventure, as well as other types of useful information. New entries will gradually be added to the glossary as you advance through the game.

Important: Once data from a save slot is overwritten or erased, it cannot be recovered.

Use a Camping Kit P26 to take a break. Camping restores HP and MP. Camping is not possible in some locations.
